Team news: As you might know, Liene & me (Marijke) will help running Archipel from now on (together with our administrative colleague Fried). We work parttime and will be at Archipel on monday, tuesday and thursday. You can reach us at Liene@archipel.site & Marijke@archipel.site

Atelier visits: We start our Archipel deepdive by meeting the heart of Archipel: the artists. We sent out e-mails (please check your spam), thank you for answering our mail, we will reply you, in the meanwhile, you can already book an atelier visit with Liene & Marijke using this link: book atelier visit (super easy peasy). Slowly but surely on, we try to understand all Archipels existing systems, there are many as it seems, please give us some time to get to know them. (/~ ~ ~ ~)/~

New Archipel residents: There are some new artists joining Archipel! We Welcome Eunice Moreira Cardona & Michael Lukyanov, they will be sharing the studio 0.13 with our Archipeller Long Tran Thang (next to the kitchen in the big shared metal Atelier) we also welcome 2 photographers; Sandra Mermans and Sanne De Wilde We also welcome Steven Dansschutter in our big shared atelier as nomad.

+ Still looking for new artists: We have 2 private platform ateliers for rent in our big shared atelier space, if you know anyone to join Archipel, please share (or mail info@archipel.site)!

Landlord visit: On Wednesday, September 9th, between 15h-18h the owners of the building will visit Archipel. Contractually, we need to provide access to all studios. Please make sure your studio is tidy. (No spare key provided yet? Please give one to Fried, Kell or James.) You're of course welcome to be present during the visit. We'll make sure all studios are properly locked afterwards. Thank you for your understanding.

Mice visit: To avoid having mice at Archipel, please clean food rests and keep your food in closed boxes. If you want some poison, you can find it in the main kitchen above the fridge.

Use common stuff: Always ask before taking stuff from the common spaces (chairs for example) and put it back please!
